ROTARY HOSTS SCOUT LEADERS

Mr. Ned McGeechie addressing the Rotary Club and Visitors.

Dayton Valley Rotarians were host to Scout leaders and members of the Boy Scout Group Committee at their regular weekly dinner meeting held in the Club Room last Wednesday evening. It was also "Ladies Night" when Rotary Anna were present at the meeting also. Guest speaker for the occasion was Mr. Ned McGeechie, Boy Scout Unit Commissioner for the northern part of the province and the Northwest Territories. Mr. McGeechie is employed by the Alberta Provincial Council of the Boy Scouts of Canada. He spoke on the "Place of the Adult in the Community. How Can They Best Serve?"

Specially honored were Queen Scouts Bill Upchurch and David Hoff. David Hoff thanked the group, on behalf of Bill and himself for the part they had played in leading the two of them to Ottawa last summer to the Scout jamboree.

Seated at the head table were Club Leader Jack O'Rourke and Mrs. O'Rourke, Rotarian and Scout Group Committee member Walter Kruse, Queen Scout, Bill and David, Rotary President Syd Mitchell and Mrs. Mitchell, Mr. McGeechie, Rotarian and Scout Group Committee president Jack Bright and Mrs. Bright and Scout Group Committee secretary Mrs. Fritsch Lachak.

Following the meal Mr. McGeechie gave a very stirring and challenging address to the group. Following is the text of Mr. McGeechie's speech:

"The aim of the Boy Scouts of Canada is to assist in developing a better citizen through its programme. The programme is a natural approach training a boy in habits of observation, Obedience and Self-Balance, inculcating loyalty and thoughtfulness for others." Teaching them service useful to the public and handicrafts useful to themselves.

All this helps to develop a boy physically, mentally and spiritual outlook.

"I recall asking a boy why he had become a Scout and his reply was 'Because I didn't have to' How many times have you seen your boy do something at home knowing very well that if you had urged him to do that very same task he would have complained at the very idea of being made to do it."

"To accomplish our goal each one of us must observe that the aim of Scouting is such that every member of the community has an interest, whether this is recognized or not, your community and any other community would have a pretty rough time if its citizens were devoid of the characteristics set out in Scouting aim."

Apart from the boys themselves for whom building and Scouting is designed and for whom benefit the whole Organization exists. The Scout organization, for Mother's Day was an outstanding day for Mrs. Bruno (Vanda) Lamb in Dayton Valley Municipal Hospital when she gave birth to five babies. One of the new arrivals, a boy, weighed in at six pounds and 11 and one half ounces and the other, a girl, weighed seven pounds and 8 ounces on arrival. Both were very healthy and strong.

Special gifts were presented by the local Hudson's Bay store to the mother and the infants.

The twins were the only babies born in Dayton Valley Hospital on Mother's Day.

What every wife should know

...about her husband's life insurance, how many "I don't know's" would you care to live?

1. How many policies does your husband own? Does he have group insurance when he works? How much is the total amount of protection provided?

2. Are any of his policies just temporary? How old will you be when this temporary protection terminates?

3. Is your husband's life insurance coordinated with a program? Is there a past or planned way to pay off the mortgage? To educate the children? How much money would it pay now? How long would it last?

It makes good sense for a wife to be well informed about her husband's insurance. Her security is the number one objective and it's through her budgeting skill that money can be set aside for the future. If you and your husband would like to review any of these questions, just call the Man from Manufacturers. You'll find him a competent and friendly advisor.

Good evening friends.

May I first take this opportunity to thank you for your support, and help, in the past. We are now entering the Election campaign in which I, and my party, under Prime Minister Diefenbaker, stand for re-election.

What are the issues? To me, the big issue is whether we, in Western Canada, are going to continue to have a say in Federal Government. We can't do it if we split our votes four ways.

What are the consequences? I surely think that the issue of Agricultural Policy should be settled. Here is an area where there was no National Policy prior to 1957. Now we have a National Agricultural Policy based on:

(1) Marketing
(2) Farm Credit
(3) Crop Insurance & F.V.A.
(4) Subsidization
(5) F.F.R.A. & A.R.D.A.

A word on each of these:

Marketing: We ask your support of our selling policies, which show empty elevators and open quotas. Policies that have resulted in record high final prices for wheat and other grains. A new I.W.A. which allows the maximum price to go to $2.19 (1 lb. can be now offering $2.00 a bushel - I hope they don't make on the British Wheat Agreement, where we sell below the world price). Did you know that we increased our wheat sales to Western Europe by more than the total sales to China?

Farm Credit: A new programme designed to make the family farm an economic unit. Decentralized with credit advisors in the field. Remember what happened when you went to the old Farm Loan Board? You were pushed off, at the maximum, loans were small. Now last year the F.L.C. loaned as much in one year to Alberta as the old Farm Loan Board did in 17 years.

Crop Insurance & F.V.A.: Increased and improved. Still not really good. Many have asked for it as an individual benefit. This couldn't be done under our Constitution, as the Federal Government can only bring in a scheme for the general good of Agriculture. To overcome this, we brought in the Crop Insurance scheme, in co-operation with the Provinces. We used this, particularly in the area, and sincerely hope the Province will see fit to join the scheme.

Subsidization of Farm Prices: New schemes for hops and eggs. These have wrinkles to be ironed out, but their basis is sound, by the support of the producer and give the consumer a break. What was the old system - "buy and sell". Our motto has been: "Support and sell".

F.F.R.A. & A.R.D.A.: Extension of F.F.R.A. and its benefits, both individually and generally, to us in the North.

Introduction of A.R.D.A., which I believe will change the face of rural Canada by providing cash and income to people to stay, rather than the continual concentration of people and industry of bygone days.

Then there are AGRICULTURAL issues. We say they were the first step to a two price system. The opposition parties want to keep them. These are the highlights briefly. Others have been classifying rape seed a grain to get lower freight rates, cash advances, better livestock, illness control.

What about the future? I pledge to support further vigorous marketing policies, better prices, a Western Veterinary College. These are the issues of the Agricultural part of our country. I ask your support on our record, and the future that now seems brighter for the farmer than in many years. I hope you will turn out and support me on June 18th.

We should like to add our congratulations to the many others that Mr. Karl Wahl and his band are receiving on the quality of their concert. We are looking forward with interest to the outdoor concert scheduled for this summer.

It is with regret that the members of United Church congregation learned that their pastor, Reverend Abdon Wright, and his family, will be leaving Drayton Valley at the end of June. The Wrights will be very much missed.

One of Drayton Valley's most widely travelled families will soon be on the move once more. Mr. and Mrs. Jamie Kay will leave soon for Libya where Mr. Kay has an important position waiting for him. During their stay the Kay's have made many friends in the community. Mr. and Mrs. Michael Kay, Mrs. Kay's family has been active in the work of their church. Sometimes, when the climate of Libya seems a little warm,

DRAYTON VALLEY ALBERTA

OTTAWA-SOUND-

These two teen-agers, Keith Nixon, 16, of Edmonton and Sheila Campbell, of Drayton Valley, joined over 500 other students gathered in Ottawa for a four-day Adventure in Citizenship. They left International Airport Sunday, followed by the good wishes of Jack Charlevoix, president of the Edmonton Rotary Club, which is one of the sponsoring Rotary Clubs. Sheila was sponsored by the Drayton Valley Rotary Club. In Ottawa they will visit sites of interest and take part in discussions on political science at Carleton University.

PICTURE-TAKING TIPS

Shoot for sharp pictures. Stand with your feet apart. Brace your elbows to support the camera, and press the shutter release slowly. You can't hurry the shutter by jabbing it quickly—but you can blur the photo.

Leaving film in the camera too long can cause the exposed image to fade. So it's best to have your film developed soon after taking the pictures.

When taking flash shots, use a guard over the lens. The flash guard provides extra light and protection in case a bulb ever shatters when fired.

Load and Unload in the Shade. Handling film in bright sunlight can cause streaky pictures. Use the shade of your body if you have to.

"Dig" Your Pictures!

Pictures of signs, highway markers, and similar landmarks make good titles for your movies, slides, or picture albums.

Keep Your Lens Clean! Dirty lenses take fuzzy, blurry pictures.

All growing-up is a picture story. A baby's first steps, new toys, first trip to kindergarten, first bicycle, first bicycle—these are all part of the big story. Keep those memories in pictures... you will be glad you did.

If you're not sure whether you've advanced the film, wind it to be on the safe side. That way you'll never run the risk of double exposures. Better still, make it a habit to wind the film immediately after each shooting.

Editorial Comment

The printing reports of the Police Court in Drayton Valley it has been noted that we do not report names, particularly of those who are residents in the community. Some like this omission; some would like to see the names printed, along with the amount of the police action and the magistrate's decision.

However, most weekly papers omit the names of those involved in local police courts, as stressed by a recent editorial comment in the neighboring Rimby Record, which is printed below:

No Names . . .

Periodically we report police and court activities in this area. The inclusion of names with court proceedings frequently does more harm than good; and frequently attaches a stigma to individuals that cannot be erased. On the other hand, we believe that it is important that a report of the activities of law-breaking persons and the penalties imposed be publicized.

It is expected that there will be a recent number of votes cast in the coming Federal election. At this moment of writing it is certainly anybody's guess as to who will win and who will lose. In spite of this, which are notoriously unreliable because of the large number of "mudslingers" who are more often than not already decided but do not want to commit themselves for some reason or other, we personally expect to see the present government go back into office.

However, on the matter of voting the Edmonton Churchman comes up with a very good suggestion, as follows:

Don't Vote Unless . . .

On June 18th Canadians will once again be given the opportunity of freely expressing their political will in the midst of a world increasingly dominated by the military coup and anti-democratic oppression. The franchise is a rare privilege in the affairs of men and it requires a sense of responsibility in the voter as well as in the candidate for office.

Foremost that this year's political campaigns will be the most cynical in Canadian political history are discouraging. Already there have been more unseemly and immoderate cast than before the respect and dignity of men seeking public office.

It is a voter's responsibility. We get the tape of Government we vote for. Votes should not be blindly cast. The slogan "Vote as you like" But "Vote" is not a vote for good government. Citizens must study the issues, study the proposed solutions, and then vote intelligently, if you can't vote intelligently—then don't vote.

Former Outlaw Dead

Al Jennings, head of the once-feared Jennings Gang, is dead at 68 in Turana, Calif., last survivor of legendary band of badmen who put the "wild" in the wild west nearly a century ago. Sentenced to life in prison in 1906 for train robbery and assault with intent to kill Jennings was pardoned in 1907 by President Teddy Roosevelt.

Among all the flags of the United Nations, only that of Cyprus bears a map of the country.

Water hoses are more effective with a filter. For a sparkling, natural effect on water, select a yellow filter. For a darker effect, a deep yellow filter comes in handy.

With flowers, yellow, deep yellow and red filters are useful, depending on the effect you desire. When you're shooting buildings, a deep yellow filter will clarify the texture of stone. That same deep yellow filter will reveal textures of sand and certain fabrics.

Light green filters are also useful. They produce flattering skin tones, for informal portraits, and produce a more natural reproduction of green foliage.

Sunset time is definitely filter time. For a sunset "in" a yellow filter cuts the haze, while deep yellow or red increases the brilliance of the scene. Deep yellow is also effective in distant landscape scenes where details are important.

Filters come in a variety of sizes to fit various cameras. Choose your filter for the occasion, slip it over the lens, check your exposure—and presto, your finished picture will have that "extra something." For more filter information see your photo dealer for a detailed data book.

Article 12

FILTERS IMPROVE YOUR PICTURES

Filters can add a lot of fun to your snapshotting. Now that summer temperatures are just around the corner, you'll be outdoors more of the time and you'll want to add color and sparkle to your black and white snapshots. You can do just that with a filter. In fact, with a filter, you can make your snapshots look like they were taken in color. If you choose a color filter, it will "pop up" the color and add contrast to the scene. Then, too, it gives the picture a different "mood" and works wonders in brightening out clouds.

Why, without a filter, do clouds disappear from a finished print? The film records the clouds and sky equally, therefore a yellow filter will hold back some of the light from the sky and make it appear darker than the clouds in the photographic print. However, it also cuts the amount of light entering the lens and this, in turn, calls for an adjustment in the shutter speed or lens aperture.

With black and white films, the filter you choose will depend on the scene and the effect you wish to create. For example, if you want to darken the clouds and make a yellow filter will allow, try a red filter.

Water scenes are more effective with a filter. For a sparkling, natural effect on water, select a yellow filter. For a darker effect, a deep yellow filter comes in handy.

With flowers, yellow, deep yellow and red filters are useful, depending on the effect you desire. When you're shooting buildings, a deep yellow filter will clarify the texture of stone. That same deep yellow filter will reveal textures of sand and certain fabrics.

Light green filters are also useful. They produce flattering skin tones, for informal portraits, and produce a more natural reproduction of green foliage. Sunset time is definitely filter time. For a sunset "in" a yellow filter cuts the haze, while deep yellow or red increases the brilliance of the scene. Deep yellow is also effective in distant landscape scenes where details are important.

Therefore I again repeat, scouting is a Co-operative effort.

A. The Leaders Who are in Uniform.

B. The Laymen (Parents and Interested Adults)

To manage the affairs of scouting you must aid with the forming of a group committee, become assistants, act as instructors.

All we are asking is the help from the parents of the boy for whom a real service is being performed.

We are obligated to aid to leaders who are devoting much personal time in arranging and carrying out the Scout program.

It can be readily understood that leadership where boys of ages 8 - 18 are involved is a prime importance. A person whose only qualification for leader is that of willingness to help may do more harm than good. A person whose character is not known to be of high order should not be considered.

Would you who operate your own business have it over to just anyone so that you could get away for a month holiday? Why?

Which then may I ask is your most important investment, your business or the boy whom you have at home?

Which would you give up if you had to make a choice?

Activities of the Cub and Scouts is acknowledged by the awarding of badges. There are close to 100 different badges, ranging from Arctik to Wintergreen. Now in order for a boy to earn these badges they must be instructed. For instance The Cyclist Badge sets out requirements designed to determine a boy can ride satisfactorily and safely, that he keep his bicycle in good order and safe riding condition. Now how to make repairs, know the rules of the road.

Sometimes, a member of the group committee, must be found, perhaps a parent, who will willingly undertake to instruct a boy who desires to earn this badge.

Certainly no leader can be expected to examine all his boys in the many badges they may wish to earn. Camping, outdoor hiking, and many others.

I present also the structure of the group movement known as Boy Scout of Canada.

RCMP COURT

In the past couple of weeks R.C.M.P. Court has had a number of cases. During this week's court a man from the Lodgepole area was sentenced to five months for three months for applying liquor to two minors. The same court session saw sixteen other cases cited, for illegal conveyance of liquor four were fined $25, each, 3 were charged on speeding offences and each paid a fine of $20. Two minors obtaining liquor drew a fine of $15, each. These minors were from the Lodgepole area also. 4 cases of inadequate equipment on vehicles drew fines ranging from $5.00 to $15.00.

Recently two men were convicted of courting to juvenile delinquency and were fined $50, each. Last week's regular court session saw eleven persons who were caught with the goods at the Tomahawk dance and all were fined $25, each, which, with costs, ran their count up to $27, plus whatever they paid for the liquor.

One accident marked the long weekend locally when a motor scooter and a car met in a head-on collision on the highway about 3 miles west of town. The scooter was completely demolished and the car badly damaged. (Cont. on Page 10, Col. 1.)

House Destroyed By Fire

Fire of unknown origin completely destroyed the two bedroom farm home of Mr. and Mrs. Bill McGee early Tuesday morning. Mr. McGee is also owner of United Electric of Pembina Rd. They live in Drayton Valley so the house was not occupied at the time of the fire.

and when Drayton Valley Volunteer firemen, with a water tank unit, went looking for the fire in the area eight to twelve miles south of town they could not find it. As far as fire Chief Don Greiner found the scene of the blaze, which was eight to ten miles south of Drayton Valley on Highway 87. By that time however, the fire was almost completely burned out and nothing could be done. A considerable amount of furniture was destroyed in the fire. Mr. McGee had recently purchased a new light plant which was also completely burned.

Previously the house burned down quite rapidly, as a neighbor, Mr. J. C. Carr, who lives only about 200 yards away, but with an interesting grove of bush between the two houses, knew nothing of the fire until after the house had burned down completely.

Rare indeed are Indian art carvings in stone in this section of the country, but this well-defined piece occupies a prominent place on the grounds of the Pioneer Village Museum. It came from southern Alberta.

Mr. Earl Darnard of the Great Northwest Pioneer Village Museum says that a lot of Drayton Valley folk have registered to go through the grounds of the Museum and see the very large collection of early Canadiana of all types that the Museum has collected in the two years since it was first started.

The Museum collections growing rapidly, as the report of the work goes around people from all over bring in relics and keep sakes from bygone days. Enumerating all the many things that are to be seen in the museum would take a catalogue, but they range from early-day pioneer household utensils to a unique combination threshing, self-propelled separator, which was the result of some ingenious fellow taking a Case 38' threshing and fitting it with a tractor motor which is mounted on top to operate the separator and a Model T Ford motor which adds propulsion. It was just the thing when there was a granary to move, they just hooked the unique Case-tractor-combine to the granary and made it into a portable. The outfit had been rubber mounted, and steering was done by an ingenious system of chain-linkage control.

The oldest school in the Territories (which was Alberta before 1905) and the oldest church are also to be found there. The school is functional and so is the church. In other words pupils could move into the hand-hewn desks in the school and start studying on short notice and sermons are still preached in the old church in its new setting. (cont. page 12, col. 4.)

Service Station Opens

Cliff Stevens, who came here from Edmonton where he was in business will be operating the new station. Mr. Stevens is married and has three children whose ages range from one to four. Having heard of the current housing shortage here they have a large trailer and will be living in Western Trailer Court.

Rev. Kenneth Gullman, missionary on furlough from Boccogsi, Ethiopia, will be at First Baptist Church on Tuesday, May 20, at 8:00. He will relate something of the conditions of the country and tell how the Gospel of Jesus Christ is constantly changing lives to its attendant improvement. We anticipate that the message will be supplemented with a picture presentation.

Rev. and Mrs. Gullman entered Ethiopia in 1946, and will soon be returning for their second term of service. Mrs. Gullman and the four children are spending their furlough in New Jersey.
